

DON'T JUDGE A BOOK BY ITS COVER

(O'Donnell / Campbell)

- Vse1: Thomas first saw terrence the tractor ploughing in a field one day, and he said.
My oh my you do look funny. Where are your wheels, are your wheels are your wheels
How ever do you move along, you really do look funny.
- Vse2: Don't be so rude said terrence the tractor, i don't have wheels like you, because my Caterpillar tracks are so much better. And i can go anywhere anywhere anywhere
I don't need rails like you
One day i will prove it, show you how i do it, then you will understand.
- Ch: That you don't judge a book by its cover, don't make your mind up too soon
Things aren't necessarily always what they appear to be
Don't judge a book by its cover don't make your mind up too soon
Never never never never never never never never, never judge a book by its cover.
- Vse3: Sure enough one winters day when the snow lay deep and hard
Thomas got stuck he was in trouble
And who do you think came along came along and rescued him that day
The snow didn't matter to terrence the tractor, now thomas understands
- Ch: That you don't judge a book by its cover, don't make your mind up too soon
Things aren't necessarily always what they appear to be
Don't judge a book by its cover don't make your mind up too soon
Never never never never never never never never, never judge a book by its cover.
- Ch: Don't judge a book by its cover, don't make your mind up too soon
Things aren't necessarily always what they appear to be
Don't judge a book by its cover just remember the rule Never never never never never never never never, never never never never never never never Never judge a book by its cover.
